PRESS RELEASE

Bucharest, October 12, 2022

In the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2023, for the fourth consecutive time, ASE is ranked 1st in Romania, out of the 20 Romanian universities present in the classification, and 501-600th overall for the second consecutive time, being the only Romanian university ranked among the top 600 world universities.

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies, the leader of economic and public administration higher education in Romania and South-Eastern Europe, is for the fourth consecutive year ranked the best university in Romania, according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2023 released on October 12, 2022.

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is, for the second consecutive year, the first and so far, the only university in Romania ranked among the top 600 of the 1799 world universities evaluated for the current edition. ASE is also ranked 48th at world level as regards citations.

ASE continues its ascending trend in the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2023 (THE WUR), an honoring performance for its academic community. ASE's international results stem from the outstanding efforts made by all the members of the academic community.

Elaborated by the British magazine Times Higher Education (THE) since 2004, the prestigious ranking evaluates research-intensive universities on the basis of 13 performance indicators grouped into four categories: teaching, research, citations, industry income and international outlook.

Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2023 ranks 1799 universities from 104 countries, the highest-ranking universities being University of Oxford, Harvard University, University of Cambridge and Stanford University.

Released in October 12, 2022, the Times Higher Education World University Rankings 2023 is available at <https://www.timeshighereducation.com/world-university-rankings/2023/world-ranking>.
