ASE in in Shanghai Global Ranking of Academic Subjects 2024

Bucharest, November 12, 2024

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is ranked 1st in Romania and 301-400th overall in Economics by the prestigious Shanghai Global Ranking of Academic Subjects 2024, released on November 11, 2024.

ASE has re-entered the Shanghai Global Ranking of Academic Subjects 2024 edition, being ranked 1st in Romania and 301-400th in the field of Economics. The ranking includes more than 1900 universities from 96 countries, ranked in 55 fields.

At the national level, ASE ranks first in the field of Economics, followed by two other large member universities of the Universitaria Consortium: the “Babeş-Bolyai” University of Cluj-Napoca and the West University of Timișoara.

Shanghai Global Ranking of Academic Subjects classifies universities on a series of objective academic performance indicators, as follows: world-class faculty, world-class output, high-quality research, research impact, and international collaboration. The 2024 edition can be consulted here.

ASE was also present in this ranking in 2019, 2018 and 2017, with honorable results in the fields of Economics, Business Administration, Public Administration and Management.

ASE is a research intensive university, which strengthens its academic prestige through its constant presence in the main international rankings. The first Romanian economic university upholds a permanent increase in the quality of the teaching process and the international educational experience offered to students, graduates and academic staff, and has a vast network of bilateral agreements with world-renowned universities. Students benefit from numerous educational opportunities depending on their field of interest, while employers appreciate the study programs offered by ASE, and a graduate diploma from ASE represents a guarantee for a secure future, a successful career and a good insertion on the labor market.
