PRESS RELEASE

Bucharest, July 11, 2024

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies climbs in the “QS World University Rankings: Eastern Europe 2025”, being now ranked 63 out of 133 world universities, and 6th out of 17 Romanian universities. This year’s edition was released on July 10, 2024 - <https://www.topuniversities.com/europe-university-rankings-eastern-europe>.

ASE has made constant efforts to be better evaluated according to the criteria in the methodology: academic reputation, employer reputation, citations per paper, papers per faculty, international research network, employment outcomes, faculty student ratio, international student diversity, international faculty ratio, inbound exchange student ratio, outbound exchange student ratio and sustainability score.

ASE is a research intensive university, which consolidates its international prestige through its constant presence in leading international rankings. Through bilateral agreements with world-renowned universities, ASE promotes the increase in the quality of the teaching process and the international educational experience offered to students, graduates and academic staff members. Students benefit from numerous educational opportunities depending on their field of interest. Employers appreciate the academic study programs offered by ASE, and a graduate diploma from ASE is the guarantee of a secure future, a successful career and a good insertion on the labor market.
