Dear colleagues,
Dear students,

We begin the 2024-2025 academic year with joy and confidence in the potential of our academic community to perform outstandingly, in the spirit of the tradition and values which define the first economic, business and public administration university in Romania, in our noble mission to competitively and harmoniously shape the future of the more than 23,000 students of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies. May you, the members of our university community, and all your loved ones, have an academic year in peace, health, good luck and notable professional achievements for you!

Vivat, Crescat, Floreat!
