PRESS RELEASE

Bucharest, May 2025

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is present for the second consecutive year in the QS Executive MBA Rankings: Joint Programmes, with its ROCA Executive MBA organized by ASE's Bucharest Business School.

ASE's ROCA Executive MBA \(Romanian-Canadian\) program is ranked 25th overall out of over 230 Executive MBA programs around the world, in a unique comparative perspective.

The ROCA Executive MBA is jointly organized by ASE's Bucharest Business School (BBS@ASE) and École des Sciences de la Gestion - ESG from Université de Québec a Montreal – UQAM, Canada.

This achievement highlights not only the program's academic rigor, but also its ability to meet the needs and challenges of an increasingly globalized and interconnected business environment
