Bucharest, October 9, 2025

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is ranked first in Romania for the seventh consecutive year, by the prestigious *Times Higher Education World University Rankings

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is ranked first in Romania for the seventh consecutive year, by the prestigious Times Higher Education World University Rankings (THE WUR 2026), published today, and is ranked 801–1000th overall, out of 2191 universities from 115 countries.

ASE - the leader of economic, business and public administration higher education in Romania and South-Eastern Europe, confirms its status as the most prestigious university in the country, according to the Times Higher Education criteria, which measure global academic excellence.

According to Times Higher Education, ASE is ranked

- first at national level, out of 22 Romanian universities included in the ranking;
- 801–1000th overall with a total score of 35.5-38.9 points, out of 2191 universities from around the globe.

THE World University Rankings, one of the most comprehensive global assessments of academic performance, analyzes university results based on 5 main pillars, as follows:

- Teaching (the learning environment) – 29.5%
- Research Environment (volume, income and reputation) – 29%
- Research Quality (citation impact, research strength, research excellence and research influence) – 30%
- International Outlook (staff, students and research) – 7.5%
- Industry ((income and patents) – 4%

ASE's excellent positioning among the elite of international higher education is the result of the dedication, professionalism, responsibility and team spirit that characterize its academic community, consisting of over 27000 members.

The result confirms the mission of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies to ensure advanced education and research and to train adaptable and future-oriented professionals, capable of contributing to the development of an innovative socioeconomic environment, in a dynamic global context.
